

COMMENTS FOR ATTRIBUTION BY SIDNEY POWELL, COUNSEL TO GEN FLYNN, REGARDING SECOND PRODUCTION FROM UNITED STATES ATTORNEY JENSEN'S REVIEW

April 30, 2020

The revelations of corruption by the FBI to intentionally frame Gen Flynn for crimes the FBI manufactured piles on with each new production of documents. Unequivocally, the documents prove the egregious extent to which those involved violated the constitutional rights of the National Security Advisor of the United States of America and a military hero, who put his life on the line for over three decades to preserve those very rights for every American citizen.

1. To be clear, we now know by the production of new text messages between Lisa Page and Peter Strzok that there in fact exists an original 302 document created by SSA 1 from his own notes of the January 24, 2017 ambush interview of Gen Flynn. Further, we know in fact that SSA 1's original 302 document went to Strzok who rewrote it substantially, but tried not to "completely re-write it so as to save [redacted] voice" and then was shared by Strzok with a "pissed off" Page who revised it substantively yet again, crafting the narrative to charge Gen Flynn with a crime he did not commit.
2. As repugnant as this conduct is on its face, the travel of this vital document establishes continuously – and until this day – the original FBI agents, the prosecutors, and FBI management's determination to withhold exculpatory evidence required under Brady, among other violations of Gen Flynn's civil rights. They withheld it not only to try to convict an innocent man, but to hide their own crimes.
3. Second, the production proves that unadulterated fabrications and outright lies by an FBI CHS (Stefan Halper) were used by the government to target and investigate Gen. Flynn in the Crossfire Hurricane scheme. When their game plan failed, the tactic shifted with the "7th Floor involved."
4. Finally, email messages in this production bolster the now widely known egregious conduct of the FBI in their plot to get Gen. Flynn one way or the other with total disregard for fairness, justice, decency, and the law.

Below are specific quotes and supporting material from this second production.

JANUARY 4, 2017

- The investigation of General Flynn was being closed on Jan. 4, 2017, as revealed in an EC by SSA 1, the second agent assigned to the interview team. (The codename used for General Flynn was CROSSFIRE RAZOR.)
- That is, until Strzok suddenly texted SSA 1: "hey, if you haven't closed [RAZOR], don't do so yet." Surprised that "serendipitously," the file was still open, Page texts Strzok: "But yeah, that's amazing he is still open. Good I guess." Strzok replies: "Yeah, our utter incompetence actually helps us."

- Strzok texts to [redacted]: "Need to decide what to do with him w/r/t [redacted]." "7th Floor involved."
- According to the closing EC, the goal was to determine if General Flynn "was directed and controlled by and/or coordinated activities with the Russian Federation in a manner which was a threat to the national security."
- NO DEROGATORY info on him in FBI files.
- NO DEROGATORY info on him in [redacted: likely DIA] files.
- NO DEROGATORY information on him in [redacted: likely CIA} files.
- So, they find a CHS [confidential human source] who seems to be the lovely and ubiquitous Stephan Halper. What follows then [reading between redactions and with knowledge of the players] is a recitation of lies from Halper about Flynn being at the infamous dinner in London when Ms. Lokhova—a British historian of Russian descent—was also present. This was while Flynn was head of DIA for Obama, and it's the Halper smear machine at work through Colonel James Baker in the DOJ ONA who was paying Halper a lot of money through a slush fund to crank out lies like this. In truth, Halper wasn't at the dinner—which was attended by about 20 members of the DIA, MI6, MI5, etc, and there was nothing of concern to anyone. Everyone had been vetted by our DIA and others.
- The FBI then "initiated surveillance on a certain Russian subject," and there was "no contact" between that person and General Flynn.
- The FBI "determined that CROSSFIRE RAZOR was no longer a viable candidate as part of the larger CROSSFIRE HURRICANE umbrella case."
- "CROSSFIRE RAZOR was not specifically named as an agent of a foreign power by the original CROSSFIRE HURRICANE predicate reporting."
- There was not even a reason to interview him because of "the absence of any derogatory information" or "any lead information from these logical sources."
- ALL of the above was in the report of JANUARY 4, 2017, closing the case on FLYNN. But that same day, January 4, Strzok texted [redacted] and asked him/her to keep the case open!
- As Strzok moved as quickly as he could to hold the Flynn file open, he received a text from [redacted]: "Should I be concerned?" Strzok replied: "Possibly. Will know more in a bit. I'll lync you in 10-15."
- An hour and a half later, SSA 1 texted the same redacted colleague: "Have you seen the latest [redacted]?" [Redacted] replied, "On the yellow side? Yes...[redacted.]" SSA 1 shot back quickly: "to give you a thumb nail i heard pete say, "Andy and [redacted] will interview...". "Lemme get more clarity before I give you more." The redacted colleague asked for clarification: “[Redacted] meaning Priestap, correct?” SSA 1 replied, “nope— [redacted colleague].”

JANUARY 21-23, 2017

- January 21, 2017, Strzok emailed Bill Priestap, Dina Corsi and other FBI officials whose names are redacted. The email discussed using a defensive briefing as a pretext to access Flynn.
- Jan 22, 2017 email chain: [Redacted FBI official] advising team Strzok, Moffa and Page, that “if we usually tell the WH, then I think we should do what we would normally do. At the very least, I think we need to debrief or interview Razor (unless told not to). I think [redacted] will get to him regardless, so we should try to frame them in a way we want.”
- “We need to discuss what happens if DOJ directs us, or directly tells, VPOTUS or anyone else about the [redacted] specifically w/r/t what we do directly with him. I think it will be very difficult not to do some sort of overt step with him, a defensive briefing or interview under light ‘defensive briefing’ pretext, unless WH specifically directs us not to.”
- On January 23, 2017, Strzok texted Page: “We’ll see about Bill. He was pretty adamant about what Andy it [sic] said with regard to that. And he mentioned on Saturday that he had several conversations with Andy. Bill sense with it [sic] and he wanted to know why we had to go aggressively doing these things, openly.”

JANUARY 24, 2017

- In the morning on January 24, 2017, Strzok texted [redacted] saying: “About to email you questions for Andy [McCabe] to think about in advance of his call with Flynn. I’m sure he’s thought of them already, but just in case.” [This email was in yesterday’s filing.]
- Later that same morning, Strzok texted Page: “Bill just told [redacted] and me that he brought up – again this time in front of D – [redacted, but certainly Comey]. Didn’t know he was going to do that.” Page replied: “Yeah. dd is frustrated. Going into mtg. Do not repeat.” Strzok assured her: “I won’t. Bill said D started going one way and DD cut him off. I’d be frustrated too.”
- In the early and late evening of February 10, 2017, an irritated Page texted Peter Strzok complaining: “This document pisses me off. You didn’t even attempt to make this cogent and readable.? This is lazy work on your part.” The two were editing the Flynn 302 that was shortly to be entered as Final—once McCabe approved it.
- Strzok replied to Page assuring her he’d put plenty of work into the document: “Lisa you didn’t see it before my edits that went into what I sent you. I was 1) trying to completely re-write the thing so as to save [SSA 1]’s voice and 2) get it out to you for general review and comment in anticipation of needing it soon. I greatly appreciate your time in reviewing and your edits I incorporated them. Thank you.” Strzok then corrected his first statement, texting: “should say 1) trying to not completely rewrite...”
